

Summer Camps 2025

Summer is a time for children and families to recharge and for children to have the opportunity for enrichment! MindPeace put together this resource list of summer camps for children and teens who have mental health needs. To add a new resource, please email info@mindpeacecincinnati.com. Additional materials for families and professionals, including Virtual MindPeace Rooms, are also available on our website at www.MindPeaceCincinnati.com.

Financial Needs:

Many summer camps do come at a cost. If this is a barrier, speak with the summer camp to see if there are scholarships available or if you may qualify for financial assistance. If your child is a part of OhioRISE, speak with your care coordinator to understand if your child's "primary flex funds" are available to help with the costs.

About MindPeace:

MindPeace is a non-profit organization working to ensure that every child and adolescent has access to an effective system of mental health and wellness. We've put together this resource list of summer camps for children who have mental health needs. To add a listing, please email info@mindpeacecincinnati.com. Additional materials for families and professionals are available on our website at www.MindPeaceCincinnati.com.
